_____)

The plaintiff, who initially was represented by counsel but is now proceeding pro se, has filed this action alleging violations of her constitutional rights by the named defendant.¹ On August 31, 2012, the defendant filed a motion to dismiss or for summary judgment. (ECF No. 31.) By order of this court filed September 4, 2012, pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975), the plaintiff was advised of the dismissal and summary judgment procedures and the possible consequences if she failed to respond adequately.² (ECF No. 32.)

Notwithstanding the specific warning and instructions set forth in the court's Roseboro order, the plaintiff failed to respond to the motion. As the plaintiff is proceeding pro se, the court filed a second order on October 12, 2012, advising the plaintiff that it appeared to the court that she was not opposing the motion and wished to abandon this action, and giving the plaintiff an additional fourteen (14) days in which to file her response to the defendant's motion to dismiss or for summary judgment. (ECF No. 40.) The plaintiff was specifically warned that if she failed to respond, this action would be recommended for dismissal with prejudice for failure to prosecute. See Davis v. Williams, 588 F.2d 69, 70 (4th Cir. 1978); Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). Despite this second warning, the plaintiff still did not respond. Therefore, the plaintiff meets all of the criteria for dismissal under Chandler Leasing Corp. v. Lopez, 669 F.2d 919 (4th Cir. 1982).³

¹ By docket text order issued August 8, 2012, the court granted plaintiff's counsels' motion to withdraw as attorney and directed counsel to provide the court with the plaintiff's last known address.

² The court observes that every mailing containing any order or report and recommendation issued in this matter following the termination of the plaintiff's attorneys has been returned as undeliverable. (See ECF Nos. 30, 36, & 42.) It thus appears that the plaintiff has failed to keep the court apprised of her current address.

RECOMMENDATION

Accordingly, it is recommended that this action be dismissed with prejudice for lack of prosecution. See Davis, 558 F.2d at 70; Ballard v. Carlson, 882 F.2d 93, 95 (4th Cir. 1989) (stating that magistrate judge's prior explicit warning that a recommendation of dismissal would result from the plaintiff failing to obey his order was proper grounds for the district court to dismiss the suit when the plaintiff did not comply despite the warning), cert. denied sub nom, Ballard v. Volunteers of America, 493 U.S. 1084 (1990); Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). In light of the court's recommendation, the court further recommends that any pending motions (ECF No. 31) be terminated.
